

Contents

Introduction 7

- Maarit Verronen: Between Realism and Postmodernism, North and South 8
 - Verronen, Nordic and European Literatures: Fantasy, Dystopia and Other Points of Contact 14
 - A Question of Literary Space 18
- The Corpus and an Overview of the Study 19

Space and Literature 22

- Framework: Spatial Turn and Spatial Literary Studies 22
- Spatial Literary Studies, Ecocriticism, and the Concept of Wilderness 27
- Key Concepts 31
 - Space and Place 33

Spatial Imagination 35

- Boundary 36
- Mapping 37
- Crossing the Boundary in Pimeästä maasta ('Out of the Dark Lands') 37
 - Defining the Boundary: Spatializing Oppositions 40
 - Crossing the Boundary: Space and Plot 44
- Space as Idée Fixe in Luolavuodet ('The Cave Years') 50
 - Revisioning the Cave Trope 51
 - Towards Spatial Agency 59

Wild Spaces 64

- Wilderness 66
- Journeying into the Wilderness in 'Mökki autiolla rannalla' ('Cottage on a Desolate Shore') 67
- The Eccentric as the Ex-Centric: Practicing Wilderness in 'Unohtaja' ('The Forgetter') 84

Dystopian Spaces 96

Dystopia 97

Experiencing Dystopian Spaces in Karsintavaihe ('The Elimination Phase') 99

The City and the Home: Reorganizing Space 100

The Innovation City: Reinvented Space 107

From the Caravan Park to the Automatic Courtyard 114

Navigating Dystopian Spaces in Kirkkaan selkeää ('Bright and Clear') 122

Disconnected: Movement and Perspective 123

Agoraphobia: Motifs of Enclosure 130

Homecomings and Homesteadings 136

Home (Homecoming; Nostos; Homesteading) 137

Living Space and the Troubles of Homecoming in Pieni elintila ('The Tiny Living Space') 139

Dislocations and the Nostos Tradition 141

Living Space: Anti-Expansionism and the Biological Imagination 148

Saari kaupungissa ('Island in the City'): Back to Place 158

Spatializations of Self-Sufficiency and Interdependence 159

Three Insular Episodes 169

Conclusion: Harassing Habitats 177

References 183

Appendix: List of Works by Maarit Verronen 196

Author 197

Abstract 198

Index 199